Step 1 – Identification and other information (continued)

Please answer the following questions.

Elections Canada (For more information, see "Elections Canada" under Step 1 in the guide.)

- A) Do you have Canadian citizenship? _____ Yes 1 No 2
If yes, go to question B. If no, skip question B.
- B) As a Canadian citizen, do you authorize the Canada Revenue Agency to give your name, address, date of birth, and citizenship to Elections Canada to update the National Register of Electors or, if you are aged 14 to 17, to update the Register of Future Electors? _____ Yes 1 No 2

Your authorization is valid until you file your next tax return. Your information will only be used for purposes permitted under the Canada Elections Act, which include sharing lists of electors produced from the National Register of Electors with provincial and territorial electoral agencies, members of Parliament, registered and eligible political parties, and candidates at election time.

Your information in the Register of Future Electors will be included in the National Register of Electors once you turn 18 and your eligibility is confirmed. Information from the Register of Future Electors can be shared only with provincial and territorial electoral agencies that are allowed to collect future elector information. In addition, Elections Canada can use information in the Register of Future Electors to provide youth with educational information about the electoral process.

Indian Act – Exempt income

Tick this box if you have any income that is exempt under the Indian Act.
For more information on this type of income, go to canada.ca/taxes-aboriginal-peoples. 1

If you tick the box, complete Form T90, Income Exempt From Tax Under the Indian Act. Complete this form so that the CRA can calculate your Canada training credit limit for the 2021 tax year. The information you provide may also be used to calculate your Canada workers benefit for the 2020 tax year, if applicable. It also may be used to calculate your family's provincial or territorial benefits.

Foreign property

Did you own or hold specified foreign property where the total cost amount of all such property, at any time in 2020, was more than CAN$100,000? 26600 Yes 1 No 2

If yes, complete Form T1135, Foreign Income Verification Statement. There are substantial penalties for not completing and filing Form T1135 by the due date. For more information, see Form T1135.

Attach only the documents (schedules, information slips, forms, or receipts) requested to support any claim or deduction. Keep all other supporting documents.
If a line does not apply, leave it blank unless instructed otherwise.
